

Moldavian market. macroeconomic developments & trends.

Moldova is a landlocked country, on the border with European Union and Ukraine. The economy of the country is doing well, showing stable growth but still facing challenges which transition economies experience. Moldova's objective is to provide a transparent and supportive business environment for investors and to integrate into European Union. The country offers opportunities and support for investors from a wide range of industries.

Moldova GDP growt.

◆ GDP growth

Moldova Inflation rate.

◆ Inflation rate

Moldova Unemployment rate.

◆ Unemployment rate

Moldova Public Debt.

◆ Public debt

Sources: weastra, based on data from the National Bureau of Statistics, Eurostat, Moldovan Agency for Foreign Investments
Last update: April 2012